EDITORIAL

I am pleased to present the third volume of the International Journal of Education, Library, Communication, and Technology (IJELICT). I extend my sincere gratitude to the Vice Chancellor of Ajayi Crowther University, Oyo, Professor Timothy Abiodun Adebayo, and his management team for their unwavering support in making this publication possible.

I am also grateful to the esteemed members of our Editorial and Advisory Board, whose expertise and dedication have greatly enriched this edition of IJELICT. Additionally, I deeply appreciate the commitment of my colleagues, consultants, and contributors, whose efforts have been instrumental in bringing this volume to fruition.

This edition includes sixteen (16) articles contributed by scholars from both local and international communities. Each submission has undergone rigorous peer review by our highly regarded team of reviewers, ensuring the quality and relevance of the content. I am confident that our readers will find these articles insightful and valuable for advancing knowledge in Education, Library Science, Information Communication, and Technology.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPT

The following are the guidelines for preparing manuscripts for submission.

- i. Language of manuscript: This should be written in English with strict adherence to British standard.
- ii. Paper size, Font and Length: Articles prepared are to be in Microsoft word on A4 size paper using Times New Romans font size 12, 1.5 line-spacing and not more than 7000 words, including references.
- iii. Title/Title Page: The manuscript title should not be too lengthy, but should be informative. Also, the title page should capture author(s) name(s) with surname (s) in uppercase, institution affiliation(s), current mailing address(es), valid e-mail address(es), phone no(s), and full postal address of the main author and co-author(s).
- iv. Abstract: This should be informative and not more than 200 words indicating purpose, study approach, findings, recommendation(s) and conclusion with a maximum of 5 keywords. Ambiguities of keywords should be avoided.
- v. Organisation of the Content: The article should be explicitly presented under various headings and sub-headings and the ideas should be properly organised, coherent and sequential. More importantly, the following should be taken into consideration while preparing empirical papers: Introduction, problem statement, objective, review of related literature, methodology, research/findings, conclusion and recommendations.
- vi. Arrangement of Tables/Figures: The tables / figures should be arranged properly and neatly using APA style and the title of the tables should appear on the top;e.g. Table 1, Table 2 etc. and figures below spill over of table to the next page should be avoided.
- vii. Arrangement of Text-Quotations: Indentation of 1.5 should in both left and right be used for a particular quotation that is up to 40 words or more. Hence, the page numbers of the quotation should be provided in bracket at the end of the quoted words or passages.
- viii. Findings/Results: This should be clearly presented in tables and figures with necessary headings/subheadings. However, it is important to re-present research questions or hypotheses in this section.
- ix. Referencing Style: The in-text citations and references should be in line with the current/latest version of American Psychological Association (APA) referencing style. Please, you can visit www.apastyle.org to familiarise yourself with APA referencing style.

- x. Submission: It is advisable that authors do strictly follow the guidelines while preparing the manuscripts prior to the final submission. Therefore, the submission should be done electronically via e-mail: ijelict@acu.edu.ng

Publication Fees/Bank Details

There will be charges of N5,000.00k or ($10) for vetting each article submitted for consideration. If the article is adjudged fit for publication, the author(s) will be required to pay the sum of N30,000 or $50 as publication fees. The payments are considered as operating costs for the Journal production. Payments should be made to:

Account Name: International Journal of Education, Library and Information Communication Technology ACU

Account Number: 1223691062

Bank Name: Zenith Bank

After publishing the articles, irrespective of the number of authors on a paper, the author(s) will receive a complementary copy of the printed journal in which the author's paper appears. However, additional copy can be purchased with a subscription of N2,500 or $5 to be paid into the journal account.

The online version of all published articles would be accessed at www.acu.edu.ng
